

UNIVERSITY OF BOMBAY

ARE YOU A CANDIDATE APPEARING FOR UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION THIS YEAR?
IF SO, ATTENTION PLEASE

You will benefit by READING SLOWLY AND CAREFULLY the following:-

- 1) You know Examinations are to test your knowledge. USE OF UNFAIR MEANS like copying and helping to copy in the Examination Hall is a malpractice. You are punishable under law, if you use or help in the use of unfair means. You will attract the attention of MAHARASHTRA ACT NO. XXXI OF 1982.
- 2) Bringing written notes and printed pages to the Examination Hall is an offence. It was in your pockets or hand-bag, and you did not notice, or that you did not make use of it" is no excuse. Possession of any written notes and printed matter on a subject of the Examination inside the Hall is improper and illegal.
- 3) Avoid writing on your palms, on the body, or on the clothes. If you are seen with such writing, inside the Hall, you are liable for punishment.
- 4) Any evidence of written/printed matter in your possession in the Examination Hall can LAND YOU IN THE JAIL.
I am sorry, I did not know" will not cut any ice with the Authorities.

4. DO NOT COPY answers from neighbours. DO NOT ask others in the Hall for answers. If caught, you can be punished with IMPRISONMENT for six months, and /or fined upto 500 RUPEES.
5. DO NOT ALLOW other candidates to copy from you. DO NOT lend him/her your answer-book, even if he/she is a very close friend, close relative. Helping others is as much an offence as copying yourself. The punishment will be the same. IMPRISONMENT for six months and/or fine upto Rs. 500/-
6. Caught in any malpractice indulged by you or in helping others, you will be taken to the POLICE immediately same punishment, whether you are male or female.
7. DO NOT BRING WRITTEN ANSWER-BOOKS into the Examination Hall. If caught you are liable for Punishment under MAHARASHTRA ACT NO. XXXI of 1982 and Bombay University Act, 1974.
8. DO NOT SEND YOUR FRIEND OR ANY OTHER PERSON TO APPEAR IN THE EXAMINATION ON YOUR BEHALF will be liable for punishment under the MAHARASHTRA ACT NO. XXXI of 1982 and Bombay University Act. 1974.

10) All offences in-the Examination Hall are NON-BAILABLE and cognizable. Trial in Court shall be summary. Your name may appear in the newspaper for your malpractice!

11) In addition to police action, and punishment under the MAHARASHTRA ACT NO.XXXI, 1982,the University will also enquire into your use of unfair means. The University also will punish you by declaring your result for the Examination as null and void, and by debarring you for a few more Examination seasons.

If you practice UNFAIR MEANS, YOU ARE A LOSER ALL THE WAY. You fail in the Examination, you are debarred, you are punished by the court, and you CANNOT SHOW YOUR FACE TO friends, relatives and neighbours.

STUDY WELL,WORK HARD, WRITE EXAMINATIONS ON YOUR OWN, YOU WILL COME OUT WITH FLYING COLOURS.

We wish you the BEST OF LUCK in the Examinations.
